

Our Fight

Red.

The colour of anger.
Anger turns to passion
Passion coursing through our blood
Blood that has been shed
Shed for our cause;
Fight for our cause.

Orange.

The colour of fire.
Fire that burns –
Burns down bridges, fences, walls
Walls built by society
Society that wants us to hide:
So we burn brighter

Yellow.

The colour of light.
Light fading from dying eyes
Eyes that stood in the face of oppression
Oppression that leaves a legacy:
Legacies of stars
Legacies of heroes

Green.

The colour of nature.
Nature from which we grow
Grow to be free, true, authentic
Authentic to the people we are:
We are like you -
We are human.

Blue.

The colour of water
Water of spilt tears
Tears from death, loss, falling.
Falling into nothingness.
Feeling nothing.
Wanting to feel something.

Purple.

The colour of pride
Pride that we hold
Hold each other tight, together, as one.
One with our love.
Love that we won't compromise -
Love we are proud of.
